A Landmark Edition!

The International Exhibition on Security, Fire Protection, Electronic Security, Industrial Safety, and Personal Protection concluded its latest edition, having established itself as the premier gathering for the comprehensive security industry.

Organized by the Argentine Security Chamber (CAS) and the Argentine Electronic Security Chamber (CASEL), Intersec Buenos Aires 2026 once again brought together industry leaders for an event that combined technology, business, professional development, and opportunities for networking to drive the sector forward.

Intersec Buenos Aires is part of Safety, Security & Fire portfolio, which includes twelve international trade fairs, conferences, and industry events worldwide: Messe Frankfurt brings together global supply and demand with connected products, applications, and services focused on commercial security and the protection of buildings, spaces, and people.
